

Back Country Jazz

Presenting the Disorder at the Border Jazz Orchestra led by Bennie Wallace

Fall

Concert

An evening with some of the world's finest jazz artists at St. Bede's — an intimate jazz club setting with drinks, tasty bites, desserts.

Saturday, October 27, 2018

St Bede's "Jazz Club", 270 Lake Avenue, Greenwich, Ct.

Doors open at 7:00. Music 7:30 to 9:00 pm

What better way to start BackCountry Jazz's 11th season than with the critically acclaimed jazz orchestra, Disorder at the Border.

"This is a great band...beauty, humor, unstoppable grooves and swing."

— Chicago Jazz Festival, JazzTimes

"Bennie Wallace and His Orchestra will be remembered as the most entertaining and powerful jazz ensemble in the annals of the Dresden Opera House jazz series and will be on the minds of those who attended for a very long time."

— DownBeat Magazine

Jazz is the only uniquely American art form

Your ticket and donations support this legacy for a new generation

BackCountry Jazz (BCJ) has been presenting outstanding concerts with major jazz artists and rising stars since 2007.

In 2010 BCJ stepped in to meet the need for quality music education for underserved students in Bridgeport. The BCJ Music Education Program now operates throughout the year to enrich the experience of students and to create new opportunities for young musicians.

Our tuition-free programs include the BackCountry Jazz Summer Music Camp, the After-School Music Program, scholarships, student performing ensembles, instruments, workshops, master classes, and exciting concerts and events with artists and educators who perform and teach at the highest level of excellence.

Through concerts and music education programs, BackCountry Jazz celebrates, preserves and expands the rich tradition of America's music, Jazz.

Thank you for your support.
